Participatory tool / method	Stimulating discussion / opening the participation process	Informing	Collecting data	Collecting inputs	Collecting comments	Prioritization and proposing solutions	Consultation of the design proposal	Involving other stakeholders (business sector, NGOs, public institutions, etc.)	Educating, capacity building	Community activation	Consensus building	Conflict resolution	Participation in decision-making
Planning tour
Street festival / happening
Video message
Model creation
World Café
Community walk / bike ride
Award ceremony
Neighbourhood meeting over a map
Mobile studio
Community planning office (including local architecture center)
Consultation booth
Consultation hours
Open door day
Public hearing
Open-air exhibition
Newspaper insert
Online tools (application, forms) for data collection
Interviews
Questionnaire survey (online and paper-based)
Sociological survey
Say it - public seminar
User groups
Online platform
Roundtable
Working group
Electronic voting
Expert seminar													